January 15, 1963 - April 21, 2022

Life Reflections of Chantoutou

Chantoutou was born on January 15, 1963 at General Hospital in Port-Au-Prince, Haiti. She was baptized at St. Joseph Catholic Church.

Chantoutou was the first born of five children. June 1982, My mother discussed the plans for Chantoutou to pursue her education within the United States of America. She was the first in her family to move to the United States.

Chantoutou attended Lindsay Hopkins Technical College for Medical Assistant, also Atlantic Technical College studying to become a Certified Nursing Assistant. She worked for several Nursing Facilities, Colonial, Forum and Court at Palm-Aire. She enjoyed providing quality care, and love for others.

Chantoutou never knew a stranger, and loved everyone she came in contact with. She was known to call and check up on others. She also enjoyed cooking and shopping. She has been a member of National Church of God for over 29 years.

In 1988 she married Guy Charlot and was blessed in this union with a daughter Tracey Charlot (both preceded her in death). Chantoutou was a devoted wife, mother, daughter, sister, aunt, cousin, GodMother, niece and friend.

Chantoutou is survived by her Mother, Adelina Baptiste.
