Life's Reflections

for

Markandy "KJ" Joseph

On May 5, 2000, a handsome bouncing baby boy was born as a twin to the parents of Chantal and Brienne Joseph. Markandy was born in the city of Fort Lauderdale, Florida and was immediately united with his family in Pompano Beach, Florida.

Markandy obtained a formal education from Pompano Beach Elementary/Sanders Park Elementary to Pompano Beach Middle/Crystal Lake Middle and ending his schooling at Ely High School. Markandy also known as "KJ" was well known for his smile and his bubbly personality. Making money was something KJ loved to do.

On September 26, 2020 the family faced a very tragic moment with Mark. Due to health issues he was admitted and kept under heavy observation. Mark fought a great fight and was surrounded by close loved ones in the time of need. On Monday, March 16, 2022 he was transferred to a still facility fighting for his life. Although Mark fought a great battle, God took on the battle and rest is what he replaced his pain and suffering with.

On March 21, 2022 at 5:21am Mark was called to his final home in heaven where he is reunited with a much closer and loving friend, belated "CMurder". Markandy leaves to cherish his memories some amazing parents: Chantal Joseph, Brienne Joseph; brotherly womb connected twin: Matthew Joseph;

his fighter and prayer warrior sister: Andrea Guner; two nephews: Cornell Joseph and Zyaire Guner; belated grandfathers: Beathone Louisjuste, Noel Joseph; grandmothers: Exentine Promice, Goslaine Desamour; belated great grandparents: Amond Promice, Vince Desamour, Juiliune Met, Anna Bumer He leaves six loving aunties, nine loving uncles; A special friend Yamilet Ascencio and a host of relatives and friends.
