

Martha Ann Bennett

May 21, 1960 - October 18, 2021

Martha's Life Journey

Martha was born on May 21, 1960 to the parentage of Annie Ruth and Herbert Boyd and was called home to be with the Lord on October 18, 2021.

She received her education within the Broward County School System and graduated from Deerfield Beach Senior High School in 1978.

Martha was a dedicated woman, she raised 3 generations of family in her lifetime. She worked as a Certified Nursing Assistant (CNA) at the Northeast Focal Point Center in Deerfield Beach, Florida for 34 years. Martha always spoke her mind and her smile had a way of calming you down, giving you a sense of comfort. Her passion was working hard for anything her heart desired and spending time with her family.

She was always a kind, helpful and giving person. She loved helping others and giving helpful life advice. Martha had a strength and presence about her, everyone she came in contact with, felt it.

Martha leaves her dearest memories to her Husband, Jerome Crowder, Son, Anthony Leonard Strobridge, and Daughter LaShundra Chant'el Crowder; Four Grandchildren, Antonia N, Strobridge, Latoria S. Strobridge, Zakeya Dorsey, Anthony L. Strobridge, III and Lastly One Great Grandchildren, Kayden L. Strobridge. Two Sisters, Yvette and Karen, Two Brothers, Anthony and Moses and a host of Aunts, Uncles, Nieces and Nephews.

She will be sorely missed by her family, friends, Church family, and co-workers.

Today we lay to rest a true Angel. May your hearts and minds be filled with peace and all the memories you have of Martha be everlasting,
