“ Mother Cooper was one of my church mother, and she always made us laugh. She was one bad usher, she'd through a fan in front for the gum. I can still see her getting her praise on, a cute, slow deliberate dance. Sister Mary was also my OES sister, we were members of Friendship Chapter #162. She was a strong, yet gentle woman, always willing to give of herself. Praying that GOD will comfort and strengthen the Cooper family.

Mary Lue was my 1st cousin. A very genuine and funny person. She would always come to visit her Aunt Lula Bell and Uncle Willie during her traveling days. We all know that age brings about a change and we begin to slow down. You will truly be missed. ❤️ your cousin Linda
