Reflection of Life

Mathilda Mae Sawyer was born July 25, 1964 in Pompano Beach, Florida. Mathilda was the 1st born daughter of six children born to the union of the late Claude Sawyer Sr.

and Sarah Sawyer. Two brothers Willie Claude Sawyer and Willie Sawyer preceded her in death along with uncles and aunties leaving her with only two aunties living which are Auntie Mammie and Auntie Shirley.

Mathilda was widely known as "Tia" She attended Coleman Elementary School and later transferred too Cresthaven Elementary. She also attend Margate Middle School and Coconut Creek High School.

Tia was always a happy Smiling person and such a pleasure to be around. Even through a hard times, she kept a smile on her face and carried such a Strength of Courage and she made sure to share that Strength of Courage with those that came into contact with her. Tia worked a various of food restuarants. Tia loved to work and was a very hard working person. Her last job was working at Popeye's Chicken on Atlantic Blvd. Customers and employee's alike adored her personality and respectfulness.

On August 3 Tia was called home. Precious memories how they linger and forever in the lives of her loving children: Curtis Sawyer, Laveisha Grant and Leon Grant Jr (Bubba) and brother Claude Sawyer Jr.
