“ Dear Lord Jesus,

I so dearly miss my sister-in-law Melinda. Please Lord, grant our family the ability to find the peace we all need knowing that Melinda is at peace, pain free and in the presence of God. The void she left in in our hearts has not yet begun to close.

Always in my heart,

Brenda K. Scott

“ A lifetime of memories spent together and you are irreplaceable Mellie!!! While my heart is aching, I am truly blessed to have shared 40 years of friendship with you! You were not only my best friend, but the greatest big sister that I could have ever prayed for. I will forever hold close the memories of laughter, crazy adventures, the good times, as well as the hard times that we have been through together. The love that was given to me will remain in my heart forever!!! So take flight my bestie, for you have been set free!

I love you!!!

Very kind and sweet soul. I will never forget your smile. Amazing woman who made me feel welcomed. Melinda fought hard and had a strong will to live. Gone too soon but forgotten. Rest In Peace.

“Melinda was a very special young lady and my dear sister-in-law. Our family has suffered a tremendous loss. Our loss is Heaven’s gain. Our family will forever have a void due her passing but we all know that “when one is absent from the Body, they are present with the Lord”. I know I’ll see her again some day. Love ya sister girl.”
