

Mildred Davis

July 9, 1944 - September 27, 2020

On July 9, 1944, Mildred Davis was born in Florence County - Lake City, South Carolina to the parentage of Tony and Anna Davis.

Mildred was the last born of four siblings; Barbara Singletary, Shirley Ruth McCutcheon, and Tony Davis, Jr. She attended school at Scranton School in South Carolina.

Mildred and her family relocated to Florida during the early years of life.

Mildred met and married Johnni Lee Davis of Cocoa Beach, Florida and to their union three children were born: Antonio Davis, Tyrone Davis and Lavonna Davis.

Mildred Davis worked many years as a nurse. She retired from the medical field. Through the years Sister Davis held many offices and participated in many ministries within the church such as usher board and mother's board. Mildred was strong in her belief and became a member of F&AM Mission Inc., Order Eastern Star 1988 and Princess Itelia #79 and later transferred Howard 104 and Sister of Distinction. She served actively throughout.

Mildred had a pleasing personality and a kind loving heart. She never met a stranger and accepted everyone as a part of her family.

Those left to cherish her loving memories and morn her passing: two sons, Antonio Davis and Tyrone Davis of Fort Lauderdale, Florida; two half sisters, Nancy Graham and Sonya McFadden of South Carolina; three Godchildren, Adrianna Smith, Ariel Smith and Diane Monique Bethea, a special friend, Victor Smith and a host of nieces, nephews and other family and friends.
