

Milton David Dixon

October 29, 1963 - November 16, 2018

Obituary

Milton David Dixon, the fourth in line of six sons, was born October 29, 1963 in Pompano Beach, Florida to the late Milton Dixon, Sr. and Loretha Dixon. Milton matriculated through the Broward County School System, ultimately graduating Class of 1981 at Blanche Ely High School. Milton also received vocational training certification with Broward County Schools in Food Production. Milton worked as a warehouse operator with the Seminole Tribe of Florida for over 35 years.

Milton married Tangela Dixon on April 6, 1991. From this union they had three sons. Milton was a dedicated husband and father, committed to providing and protecting his family. His wife, Tangela, preceded him in death.

On November 16th, 2018 Milton left his earthly form to join Tangela at their eternal home with God. He leaves to cherish fond memories; three sons: Milton Dixon III of New York, New York, Marcus Dixon, and Malcolm Dixon; a loving grandmother, Lizzie Mae Webster; five brothers: Jimmy Wilkins, Charles (Chavella) Dixon of Spotsylvania, VA; Clarence Dixon, Henry (Erica) Edwards, and Gerald Dixon. A caring uncle, Calvin (Beatriz) Fullwood. A host of nieces, Godchildren, cousins, and special friends who he loved dearly.
