

Odiana Ulysse Vilbrun

July 13, 1969 - August 20, 2020

Odiana Desilus also known as Odiana Ulysse Vilbrun, was born at approximately 9:10pm on July 13, 1969 in Port-de-paix, Haiti. She was born to the late Estalien Desilus (father) and Vermila Borgela (mother). On August 12, 1995 she was blessed with twin daughters Clendia and Clendie Ulysee in Port-au-Prince, Haiti, she later came to America on December 23, 1998. She was loved by many, and showed love to everyone wherever she went. She was a Christian woman who loved going to church, cooking, helping others, and feeding the homeless. As the wonderful Christian woman that she was, she participated in the choir and also helped with coordinating youth group activities and dance practices. She served with her job Stimpson for over 15 years. She was an amazing woman, and was always there when you needed her.

As a mother she was committed to “Providing, Protecting, Leading, Teaching and Loving” her children. Everyone loved Odiana, but God loved her best. She battled a long fight with kidney failure, and she yet remained a strong soldier through it all. She was an amazing mother, family oriented, she never had the heart to turn her back on anyone. She left her mark, and an amazing legacy that will be carried out by her family and friends. On August 20, 2020 God decided to call Odiana Ulysse Vilburn home, with this she left her two daughters, a grandson, and her 7 brothers and 4 sisters. We’re thankful for the impact you’ve had on our lives and you will forever be missed.
