Reflections of Life

Ola M. Nathan- Herron

Ola Mae Nathan-Herron transition to glory on December 5th 2021. Ola Mae Nathan- Herron was born in Marion County in the city of Dunnellon, Florida on October 8, 1936 to Will Nathan and Emma Thomas-Nathan. Ola was the second of eight children during the marriage of Will and Emma Nathan.

Ola attended Coleman Elementary and Blanche Ely High School in Pompano Beach Florida where she graduated from high school. Upon leaving Blanche Ely, Ola Mae obtained her certificate as a CNA.

Ola found true love when she met Freddie B. Herron in 1957. She later married Freddie B. Herron in 1965 and from their union God bless them with a son. (what is the son name?)

Ola was employed with the Northwest Broward Regional Hospital for many years as a CNA.

Ola gave her life to God at an early age. Realizing the importance of her faith and maturing spiritually Ola rededicated her life to the Lord on 8/12/1973 under the leadership of the late Bishop Jack Jones, First Born Church of the Living God until she moved her membership to Mt. Calvary Baptist Church.

Ola's parents preceded her in death Will and Emma Nathan. Along with her husband Freddie B. Herron, a son Jeffery Brown, 3 sisters; Lorene Allen, Patricia Nathan and Jannie Griffin, 2 brothers; James and Will Nathan.

Ola Mae Nathan-Herron leaves to mourn: 2 sons' Michael Herron and Freddie B. Herron Jr., 1 daughter Pastor Jeanette (Morris) Norman, 2 sisters; Cora L. Nathan and Ruth L. Nathan-Johnson, 13 grandchildren; Torrey, Shakeia, Nerissa, Michael Jr., Jessie, Shabrill, Jameica, Tyteanna, and Idris, 8 great grandchildren; 1 great granddaughter, 1 brother in law Ben (Lula Mae) Herron Jr., special niece Camilla Harris, and a host of other nieces and nephews, great nieces, great nephews, and other bereaved family and friends.
