“ Thank you to everyone that has posted on here. Words cannot express how good it is to hear such kind messages about my father. I am so heartbroken that I was not able to attend his funeral.. I will always know how much he loved though and I will never forget his goofy personality and how giving he was to everyone he loved. I would love to hear from any friends who have memories to share. Feel free to contact me.

“ My dear friend and co-worker Sam Almassri has parted from this earth unexpectedly. Most people would think he was a difficult person to understand because he let few people know him or let him open up to..But in that she'll of a men, he was kind, good hearted, sensitive to needs of others and would do anything to help you. If you where his true friend he would "give his eyes for you" something that meant a lot to him. He will be missed for his strange sense of humor his smile and his patriotic dedication to serving his country. He was a great man, great person, great patriot, and if I can say something to him I would say thank you, thank you for being my friend, shalom shalom

“ Dear Sam

Robert and I are sad everyday.... I know if you are watching you know what you meant to us as a friend. This fact is still something we can't quiet seem to wrap our minds around. Not to be able to chat with you and hear your voice and advice is a sad reality of those of us you've left behind. I know we have to accept GODS will and he knows best. We just pray that we were good to you. Though you were a far better friend to us by far. We were blessed in so many ways to have met you and to have spent the fun and funny moments with you for the past couple of years. You are missed!!! Thank you for being you....Robert & Minde
