

Overson Cledanord

October 9, 1994 - February 18, 2022

Overson Cledanord was born to the parentage of Wimpy Cledanord and Marie Chantale Pierre on October 9, 1994 in Haiti. Overson was affectionately called “Ovie” or “Pouchon” by those who loved him. Overson spent some of his younger years in Haiti until finally migrating to America to live with his father in Delray Beach, Florida. He was educated in the Palm Beach School system and eventually went on to obtain a bachelor’s degree and was working on his master’s degree before he passed.

Overson was quiet as a child and found enjoyment in sports. He would participate in school sports until he was so good at these sports, particularly football, that he was able to go to college and play football. He was even able to play semiprofessionally through the Arena Football League. Football was a passion that he always had developed, and he was loved by his coaches and teammates alike.

Overson’s smile was infectious and would light up an entire room. He would always find a way to be pleasant and bring happiness to those around him. On February 18, 2022, the Lord saw fit to call upon another angel to return home. Overson may be gone in his physical form, but he will always live in the hearts of those who loved him. He was preceded in death by his father, Wimpy Cledanord.

He leaves behind to cherish his memories:

Mother: Marie Chantale Pierre

Stepmother: Linda Chery-Cledanord

Grand Parents: Merinel Cledanord and Osianie Civil Aunts and Uncles: Frida Cledanord-Lamonge, Wilclise Cledanord-Arty, Diempe Cledanord, Olgrens Dortelus, Richard Cledanord and Wightgimps Cledanord, Darline Chery
He will be remembered by a host of friends and extended family.

“ I met Ovey at Delta State when we played football together. From that moment on we clicked like brothers. Florida and Louisiana are pretty similar in multiple aspects so our extra curricular activities blended beautiful. He pushed me everyday to be a better football player and then he taught me how to have fun and party. He taught me that it is going to rain, but you can always smile and make the best of the situation. I love him to death and i miss him dearly. Thank you for everything brother. Its always #15_Zoklos forever brother.

“ Ovenson was a special person in my life.I looked up to him as a big brother. He would always push me to be better as a athlete, in my academics, and as man. He knew how to shed light on a bad situation and turn it into to something positive. He that good nature around him that when he walked into the room all you could do was smile and be in a good mood. His love was for his family and friends that come to know him was genuine love and respect. We love you Ovey
