

Pamela Denise Saddler

December 7, 1961 - February 20, 2022

Mrs. Pamela Denise Marion-Saddler was born on Dec 7, 1961, to Cliff Sr. and Annie Marion in Fort Lauderdale, Fl. She was one of 8 children, five girls, and three boys. Pam graduated from Deerfield Beach High and Broward College. Also, when she was younger, Pam competed in various competitions with the choir, "Echo of Glory." Pam was a hard worker, and she worked at Walmart for many years, where she made great friends. She was always kind and had a great sense of humor. Pam was everyone's favorite auntie. She met and married Mike Saddler, and they were together for 34 years. Together they had a beautiful daughter named Arianna Saddler. Pam was full of life. She and her best friend Mookie was known as the "Mistress of Deerfield." Pam enjoyed going to the skating rink in her younger years. But the older Pam got enjoyed relaxing and hanging with family. She loves going on road trips as long as someone else drives. Pam was a mother, sister, wife, and overall loving person. On an early Sunday morning, the Lord called her home. We miss her already. She is survived by her husband Mike, daughter Arianna, sisters Terry and Glenda, and brothers Cliff Jr., James, and Tommy Marion. And a ton of nieces and nephews. Proceeded in death by both parents, older sisters Mary Marion Parker, Virginia Marion, nieces Anitress Marion, and nephews Rodrick and Vernard.
