Your Loving Children
Life's Reflections

On February 8, 2018, God called one of his loving servants to come home. This servant was Mrs. Patricia Smith Boynton. Patricia was born to the parentage of the late James Smith and Zelma Hollis in Ocala, Florida.

Who was She?

Patricia was reared in Ocala, Florida with her loving late brother, Amos Smith. She was a proud graduate of Howard High School Class of 1956. Patricia was a member of Seed Sowers of Faith Christian Center, Ft. Lauderdale, FL. under the leadership of her son, Pastor Johnny Boynton.

Patricia Smith married the late William F. Boynton on August 20, 1956, and to this union, six children were born. She set good examples for her children, by telling and showing them the right thing to do. She was the Matriarch and the strength of her family. At Patricia's house, the door was always open. Her house was a safe haven. Sweet tea could be poured up in minutes, and the dining room table was a place of peace and non-judgement. Anyone who needed to talk/vent was welcomed anytime. She loved to cook and you were guaranteed a meal.

Give me my flowers, yet while I live. We gave you your flowers every day!
Sometimes we wonder about the lives that we have;
Would we be at the same crossroads if we had taken another path?
If you were not our Mother, would our lives be the same?
Would we lead a life of failure or would we lead a life of fame;
But then we reminisce on how you were so good to us.
You molded, scolded and showed us what life could be; you protected, respected
And were always there for us; if not for you, we would not be who we are.
We had you Mother, we need not more;
That's why we thank the Lord for the one we've had Momma,
We Love You Forever!

A Grandmother offers the gift of hope...

That her grandchildren may know a world as high and as wide as any dream.

Grandma/Nana, we learned to believe that anything is possible,

And we learned to believe in ourselves. You opened up the world for us

And now, no matter what road you and we may travel, our thoughts are with You, thoughts of gratitude, pride, and so MUCH LOVE!

People come into our life for a reason, a season or a lifetime.

When a prayer is answered, there is no need to cry.

For everything there is a season.

A new life begins when a part of life ends.

We know why you, Patricia S. Boynton, came into our lives and we love you for that reason.

*Adopted Mother to Several

*A Sister to Some

*A Neighbor, Friend and Advisor to Many!

God saw you were getting weary, so he did what he thought was best.

He came and stood beside you, and whispered, "Come and rest."

You bade no one a last farewell, not even a "goodbye"

You were gone before we knew it, and only God knows why.

A host of sorrowing relatives, friends and neighbors.

“ Sorry for your lost. I was just telling my kids on Monday I need to pay a visit and how I would come over to vent about how I had to stop going to school, because I could not afford it, Mr. Boyoton said to Mrs. Boyoton to set the table for me to eat with them as he talk with me on how I was going to pay for school, also another time a classmate was going to dropout of school and I went again to talk with him and they where able to talk the young lady to stay in school. I would visit her from time to time I just love the family they are good people. I will keep you all in my prayers.
