Penny's home going felt like a family reunion and fellowship it was beautiful. Memories last forever and that's a wonderful thing. I have a couple of my memories of Cuz Penny, one was the last family reunion my mother Ida attended in Ft. Lauderdale where Penny was the life of the dance floor. My mom requested down home blues that's when the older ones got up to dance. The other is when we (all cousins) auditioned for Family Feud with Steve Harvey. It was a lot of fun. I am truly sorry for your loss of this beautiful woman inside and out. I'm glad it was broadcast on the web giving me these last moments with Penny. Sending my condolences and love to the family. Much love Cuz Iris

“ On our honeymoon cruise in September 2025, my husband and I were seated by chance next to Penny and Maxine on the very first night at one of the many restaurants on board. They were celebrating Penny's birthday on this trip, and she was so excited to get to the lounge and sing karaoke to Tina Turner (her favorite).

Our first conversation made such an impact on us that we decided to return to that same spot almost every night, to sit and chat with them about our days and learn more about each other. We quickly learned so much about Penny's life; she loved her family and spoke about them with such pride.

On a giant ship with endless activities, we seemed to run into them everywhere—the party lounge, the karaoke bar, and the pool deck. We even saw them one last time after docking, sharing our final goodbyes right as they were being picked up.

We often look back fondly on that cruise and the two kind women we met.

We will forever remember Penny as a fun-loving, tea-drinking, hardworking, and caring woman who was truly the life of the party.

Rest in peace, Penny. We will always remember you. □

All our love and condolences to Maxine and family,

Je Ann & Lance
