

Randolph Howard Isom

March 1, 1950 - October 13, 2024

A Celebration of Life for Randolph H. Isom
“Slack”

Randolph Howard Isom was born March 1, 1950, to the late Hedrick Isom and Tommy Holland both of whom preceded him in death. To this union, there were two children Randolph and the late Cassandra Isom (Wright).

Randolph was raised by his aunts: The late Theresa Holland and the late Lois Johnson under their guidance at an early age he joined Mt. Calvary Baptist Church.

Randolph attended Blanche Ely High School and participated in basketball where he was part of the district 13AA Champion. He also, played the trumpet in the band. He graduated in 1968.

After high school, he married his high school sweetheart Patricia, from that union Malika and Tiyau were born. Though their relationship turned out to be less permanent than either of them expected, Patricia went on to remarry and within Randolph's new relationship, Shunika was born.

Randolph pursued and engaged his dream as a painter. He enjoyed painting homes and buildings in his community of Pompano Beach, Florida. He also loved fishing and playing the Florida lottery.

On October 13, 2024, the angels came and took him to his final residence, his heavenly home.

Randolph became the proud father of 3 he nicknamed them: Mad, Doc, and Monster

Randolph leaves family and friends who will surely miss him dearly. A surviving divorced spouse, Patricia Stephens (Omega). His devoted children, Malika Flowers (Willie), Tiyau Isom (Whitney) and Shunika Isom (Sean).
