

Reba Denell Clayton

June 26, 1952 - November 27, 2017

Reba Denell Clayton was born on a hot summer day in Pompano Beach, Florida on June 26, 1952. She was born to the parentage of the late Willie Lee Clayton Sr. and the late Elizabeth Graham Clayton.

Reba attended Coleman Elementary, Charles Drew Elementary, and Blanche Ely High wherein she met and fell in love with Mr. Donell Gray and to that relationship her only daughter was born; Terry Genise "Nikki" Gray. Reba completed her education at Job Corps in Portland Springs, Maine; wherein she received her GED. While in Portland Spring, Maine she met, Mr. Wayne Madden and she relocated back to Pompano Beach, Florida, wherein she bore her only son, Keefer Fernando Clayton.

Reba enjoyed cooking, gardening, beautifying her yard, collage making, entertaining, and had a special interest in the elderly and people in need. Reba revered the Lord.

Reba utilized her certifications that she acquired in Job Corps to gain employment as an unit coordinator at Northwest Medical Center and North Broward Medical Center, until her health suddenly declined wherein; she became disabled and retired. Reba felt that she was not fulfilling her passion. Reba became a volunteer for focal point and part-time worker for impact of Broward, assisting and companionship for the elderly and helping anyone and everyone in need.

At an early age Reba received her spiritual enlightening in the tent which later became House of God #2 under the leadership of her Grandfather, Rev.

Ernest E. Graham. Reba was a member of the choir and Pompano #2 "Grahamettes, as Reba became older yet having her own personal zest for the Lord. Reba visited many churches. She had a love for T.D. Jakes and Joel Osteen. Until her health failed her once again.

On a cool brisk Monday afternoon at 4:18 PM on November 27, 2017; Reba made her peace with God, she earned her wings. She departed this O'le earthly life peacefully from her residence in Pompano Beach, Florida to her heavenly eternal life. She is gone but never to be forgotten. She leaves to cherish her memories, one daughter; Terryll Genise "Nikki" Gray, (Father-Donell Gray) of Fort Lauderdale, Florida.
