April 20, 1948 - November 7, 2023

Robert Lee Martin was born on April 20th, 1948. He was the beloved son of the late Samuel Martin Sr. and Susie Mae Martin in Pompano Beach, Florida. Robert was a hard worker, a man of dignity, courage, faith, and strength. Robert graduated from Blanche Ely High school in 1966 and served as a Marine in the Vietnam War. He was one of two survivors of a USMC group that was sent to Vietnam and returned home. He was honored at a Legacy Gala Award, where he received a sharpshooter and purple heart award.

Robert was married to the late Patricia Ann Martin, who preceded him in death. On April 20th, 1997, Robert decided to give his life to Christ, and he became a member of Bible Walk Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of Pastor Ronald Jones. Robert devoted himself to his church and was ordained Deacon in 2001.

Robert's life story is a testament of the supernatural power of faith and will proving all things are possible. “ With deepest sympathy to the Martin family. I'm really going to miss Mr Robert, seeing him riding his scooter always smile and talking to everyone he knew. Very kind and honest man. You fought as long as you could. Even though our hearts are broken. We know God knows best you're going to get that heavenly mansion in the kingdom of heaven. Sleep in peace, and may the Lord forever bless the Martin family
