“ Rodney, you will be forever remembered as Gotti to me. All the laughs you, Val, me and the kids had will be forever in my memory. I remember you and the jag when you first got it. We made jokes that we had to take our shoes off to get in and ride. Lord those were some funny times or when Val didn't want to take sawgrass expressway or drive, you were there. We'll miss you as we have these last few weeks but our thoughts are all good.

“ Don, Ray, Ann, Shawan (What we called you) and Val:

*Sending our deepest sympathies from the entire Thomas Family on the passing of Rodney. We can all remember our days growing up together in Liberty Park. The last time I was in town and saw him he said hello as he usually would by saying "Hi little Tunita" and I would always remind him " I'm a big girl now" and he would laugh. Tunita always referred to him as "Mali" which was short for the Malibu car. We pray that the memories of your big brother provide you peace, comfort and strength in the coming days ahead. We love you all !
