

Dr. Ronald Alan Johnson

May 26, 1942 - May 3, 2023

Dr. Ronald A. Johnson was born on May 26, 1942 to Bonnie and Walter Johnson of Barrington, Illinois. His known grandparents were Stella and Glen Neely. His younger sisters, Wendy and Jodi, grew up with him on a beautiful farm, where they enjoyed the 4H club, raising various large and small animals. They were a musical family as well. His mother played the violin, his sister Wendy played the piano, and his sister Jodi played the guitar. Ronald became an expert trombonist. "Blue Bells of Scotland" was his favorite song that he played to win first place in a high school competition. In college, he studied veterinary medicine because of his love for horses.

In 1966-1968, he studied for and attained a master's degree in veterinary surgery. He later attained a N.D. and Ph.D in Nutrition. He married Bonny Beth Dyer in 1967. They have one surviving daughter, Jenny Beth Johnson Czyz and two grandchildren, Ciara Czyz and Braden Czyz. He is also survived by his sister Jodi Cottrell, her children, Kurt, Scott, and Kristi, their children, and his deceased sister Wendy's daughter, Noelle Waite and her son. All reside in California and Arizona.

As a veterinarian, he practiced large animal and small animal medicine and surgery. He was highly respected as a surgeon. His daughter Jenny faithfully helped him maintain his mobile veterinary practice as he grew older. He worked until several strokes took their toll on his health. He passed away at Lenox on the Lake on May 3, 2023 after several years of declining health. We will always cherish Ronald's memory. He was a kind and generous father and grandfather.

“ I remember you Dad as such a kind man. Always letting you take the vintage Mustang and cruise around Boca when in high school. He was fortunate to have you during his later years to take care of him. May see Rest In Peace.
