Obituary

Life Is What You Make It
“I Have finished my course”

The late brother Roscoe Sapp was born on June 25, 1940 to the late Walter Sapp and Cassie Mae Cheatom in Thomasville, Georgia. He was born the 5th of seven children.

Roscoe joined Greater Community Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of Elder Lorinzo Derico and was a faithful member.

Roscoe did construction work for several years, until his health wouldn't allow him to continue. He then started pursuing his passion, which was selling fruits and vegetables in his community. He was very well loved by many people and would give you the shirt off his back if need be. Roscoe will be truly missed by many.

On December 31, 2016 God walked into his garden and called Roscoe to rest. He leaves to cherish his memory: Two Beautiful Daughters Kimberly Dillard of Pompano Beach, Fl., Shawanna (Anthony) Sapp-Greene of New Jersey, three sons Walter Sapp of Pompano Beach, fl, Vernon Sapp of New Jersey, Graylin Sapp of Atlanta Ga.,

Two sisters Georgia Mae Wright of Pompano Beach, Fl, Willie Mae Blatche of Boynton Beach, Fl. Six Grand Children, Fierra Dillard, Yasmin (Derrick) Johnson, Dalina Ford, Shavonna Sapp, Ashley Sapp, Amir Sapp, and a host of Great Grands, Nieces, Nephews, relatives, and friends. Roscoe touched the lives of many, and will always and forever be remembered.

“ I have so many good memories of my father that will always stay with me. He has always been a positive figure in my life. He made sure I look at the good side of everything. He was loved by many. A loving and caring spirit that will give you his last. I have NEVER seen my dad get angry he always kept a smile on his face. He was surely a great father, and I made sure I gave him the respect he gave me. He will always be my hero ❤️❤️
