

Rose Docilna Docius

December 22, 1941 - January 17, 2023

Rose Docilna Docius was born on December 20, 1941 in Bombardopolis, Haiti to the parentage of Docius Dorival and Marianne Dilejuste. Rose was affectionately known as “Jimo” or “Mo” because she was born a twin. To say Mo was a wonderful person would be an understatement. She was a person who loved to work and use her hands to create things. She could garden, cook, make oils for hair and cooking, etc. Those who knew Mo would definitely say she could tell you stories for hours. She loved oral histories and traditions. She could go into details about making things by hand and using what nature has to your benefit.

Mo was such a loving person and a wonderful mother, grandmother, sister and aunt. She gave birth to eight children but her motherhood stretched beyond those children. She would give advice to anyone who dared allow her to consult them in a dilemma. Her voice was always mild and you would seldom hear her raise her voice.

She leaves behind eight children: Christnel, Fritznel, Imonase, Walterne, Rosenette, Roselène, Rosemène and Risnel.

Daughter and Son in Laws: Isemalène, Magalie, Dieusina and Bency.

Siblings: Mériciane, Docina, Rose Docila, Lénia, Saintasia, Olangé, Rénel, Rismène and Joséphine.

Brothers and Sisters in Law: Evenus, Robnie, Janel, Marie Rose, and Idonaise

She leaves behind 23 grand children and a host of nieces, nephews, and loved ones

“ What a beautiful soul!

*Mo, I was very fortunate to have you as my mother in-law this past twenty years. As time goes by, I have learned to understand where you came from and why you were a little hesitant with me. But looking back now , I will never be able to comprehend what a strong human being you were. You loved all of your children and grandchildren . You enjoyed spending time with your sisters especially “Man Niss” that you call beautifully “Masè”. You really enjoyed talking to people anytime about everything, maybe it’s because you knew the day was coming quickly and you didn’t want anything to be left unsaid. That last Monday we spent together, you told me stuff I would never thought you would share with me. I want to let you know that I will do my best to follow up on them. You were a beautiful soul. My best memory about you was how when you first got here almost ten years ago while you were defending one of your daughters in law because her husband had an affair and you said “I don’t care what he’s doing I just want him to take care of his wife and the kids.” At that time I remember asking you whether you would defend me also if I was in that same situation and you said of course without hesitation. Sometimes I just ask myself why people in this world had the gut to cause you that much pain in your younger days. Of course that is another unanswered question, but no more! I know you’re in a better place for almost two weeks. Though it is very hard to say goodbye, we don’t want to be selfish neither as the Lord had a different plan for you. All I can say is thank you Lord for sharing you with us for more than eight decades on this planet earth . I want to take this opportunity to let you know that you can go peacefully knowing that you have left the world with 8 human beings that will continue to keep your legacy alive. By the time we reunite again, rest in peace beautiful soul  *

“ A FEW WORDS TO YOU MO

Mo, let me tell you a few words from my heart. I am not talking to your body, which is laid down and can't hear nor understand a thing. A body that is without a soul, spirit, or hope. A body that was made of dust will become dust again. I am talking rather to your spirit and your soul that will never die.

I did not have a chance to talk to you before you went to bed on that Monday, January 9th. "Life will not tell you." Now, I understand why you talked so much that Monday. If I knew, I would take all these last few days to talk to you and record your voice all along. It's a pity! Life will never tell you.

But I don't regret it because I was lucky enough to be very close to you during the last nine (9) years or so. Those years are worth more than gold or diamond. They are worth more than 38 or 40 years of my life where I did not have a chance to live with you.

You can go. Rest with joy. Rest in peace. Your work was well done! Thank you for the immeasurable love you had for all your children. Thank you for everything. Thank you for all the wealth and trust you invested in me. I will always keep my promises to you. I will always be that help to my brothers and sisters in every way I can.

Go with peace of mind. Mo, I love you. I am sure that we will live again together one day. That time, death will be defeated forever.
