

Salatha Cherell Brown

February 20, 1967 - April 16, 2024

Salatha Brown was born a beautiful baby girl on February 20, 1967, to Kathryn Smith and Johnny (Chub) Brown in the city of Pompano Beach, Florida. Salatha was an ambitious and caring woman, affectionally called "Brown Suga" by those who loved her. She received her formal education through the Broward County Public School System, where she excelled in her studies and graduated from Blanche Ely High School class of 1986 in Pompano Beach, Florida where she remained as a resident throughout her life.

Salatha was employed with the School Board of Broward County Public School system, where she served dutifully for nineteen years as a bus attendant.

In her leisure, she enjoyed cooking and entertaining her family and friends. Salatha enjoyed helping others and spending quality time with her children.

Salatha was blessed with a voice and a smile that could light up any room that she entered.

She was preceded in death by her loving father, Johnny (Chub) Brown, beloved grandmother, Juanita Smith, and auntie Janice Smith. She leaves to cherish her joyous memories her caring mother Katheryn Smith; two sons

Breon Brown and Keon Brown (Robert Wright), two bonus sons; Carl Nesmith, Jr., and Braxton Nesmith, two brothers Ricky Smith (Tonya) and Glenn Martin; three uncles Leonard Smith (Joanne), Alton Evans, and Randy Smith (Eara), three aunts Carolyn Tillman, Evelyn Frankin, and Beverly Nesmith, nephew: Darnavus Marthin, God daughter Sherelle D'Asia Harswell. Salatha also leaves to mourn her passing a host of cousins, and other loving relatives and friends.
