

Sarah Ward

October 8, 1927 - January 23, 2026

Sarah Ward was born on October 8, 1927, in Midville, Georgia to the late Ruth Glover and Milledge Ward. She had one brother, Mathew Ward, who preceded her in death.

Her parents died when she was very young, so she moved to Hammondville, Florida and was raised by her maternal aunt, Alice Glover Blount Tucker, who preceded her in death.

At an early age, she moved to Newark, New Jersey to join her maternal uncle and first cousins, who were like her father and brothers and sisters respectively. She attended Cosmetology School and later worked as an Electronics Assembler for many years. She was a hardworking woman and devoted herself to excellence and instilled those values in her children. She gave her life to the Lord at an early age and attended Mount Calvary Missionary Baptist Church in Newark, New Jersey, where she served in many capacities. She was also a member of Order of the Eastern Star.

Sarah returned to Florida in July 1981 where she became an active member of the Pompano Beach and Deerfield Beach communities. Sarah has been a dutiful member of the Greater Antioch Missionary Baptist Church for over 25 years. She graciously served on the Mission Board and the Mother Board. Sarah served her time here on earth and spread love everywhere she went.

Her kindness and caring demeanor allowed many people to take to her and consider her their “other mother”.

The Lord called her home on January 23, 2026. She leaves to cherish her memory: (daughter) Pearl Smith in Elizabeth City, North Carolina; (son) Gerard Ward (Cecelia) in Ocoee, Florida; (nephew) Emanuel Ward (Corinne) in Albany, Georgia and a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews and other relatives, friends and Godchildren.

Sarah will be deeply missed but forever remembered with love.
