

Selondieu "Ben" Benjamin

May 9, 1957 - May 2, 2025

Haiti, Ben was a man of integrity, discipline, and strength. He spent his early years in Gonaïves and later moved to Port-au-Prince as a young adult before immigrating to the United States and settling in Pompano Beach, Florida, where he would spend the rest of his life. Ben was a proud and skilled electrician, devoted to his work and respected for his dedication and craftsmanship. Outside of work, he enjoyed tending to his garden full of tropical fruits and cheering on his beloved Miami Dolphins. Above all, Ben was a principled man — a private soul who valued respect, prioritized health, and loved his family deeply. He was a strong and steady father, a devoted grandfather, and a natural storyteller whose presence left a lasting imprint on all who knew him. Ben's greatest pride was his family. He is survived by his loving children — Robinson, Beatrice, Gregory, Whitney, and Kimberly — each of whom carries forward a piece of his strength, character, and determination. His legacy continues to live on through his cherished grandchildren: Breyana, Kayla, Nyjeal, De'Asja, and Landon, whose lives are a testament to the love, lessons, and values he instilled across generations. His memory will live on in the hearts of those who loved him, the stories he told, and the example he set. He will be deeply missed but never forgotten.
