“ My deepest sympathy to Ivan and the Jones Family. You are in our thoughts and prayers.

I met Shawanna about 30 years ago while attending FAMU. We were roommates and she had the most beautiful smile and a sweet quiet spirit. I was moved and impressed by her love and boldness for God. It was her faith and desire to serve God, which lead me to want draw closer to Him. Seeing her host bible study at the dining room table, and later joining the FAMU gospel choir was the example that I needed at the time.

I'm still baffled by the news, but I know that God is faithful to His to Word. Nothing can separate us from His love and He's going to comfort this family as only He can.

Ivan Reynolds, the blessing of Lord is upon you, therefore, go to your destiny. Your mom loved you and will always live on through you. I remember hearing her say to you, GREATNESS is in you. You are destined to do great things regardless of what it may look like. May the peace of God that surpasses all understanding keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus. Love Sabrina & Family
