“ The day Shawn first got sworn in and left for boot camp, I cried because I knew I would miss him too much. Now, 9 years and 8 months later, Shawn will forever be safe from harm. I loved you then, and will always be the funniest person I know! Will always think of and pray for you!

“ I remember when you first met him and he would come over and hang out with us. How you were so in love it interfered with your job and how he took care of you when you needed him most. He was a great man and I will miss him greatly. I remember when I enter into him at the library on campus and how excited he was to see me. That always makes me smile.

“ I still remember when Shawn was a little kid and I chase him and get him with a super soaker when it was hot outside. He always kept coming back for more, he loved doing that as a little kid.

“ My Dearest Shawn was a joyful gift from God. He was full of life and always made everyone he came into contact with smile! He was a loving brother to his brothers and sisters. He always made time for them. He would always call and talk to them just to see how they were doing. Sometimes he would call and play video games with them. Shawn called almost every morning to check on me. We had wonderful Father/Son talks almost everyday. I will miss him greatly. Love you son,! Love Dad.

“ My heart aches for my son to hug me and tell me how he loves me and everything will be ok. He was a rock to me yet the most tender hearted man you could know. As a child he was the sweetest little boy I have ever seen. So kind. I don't know how to get through the pain of losing him or how I am to go on without him but I thank God for allowing him to be my son. What a privilege I had. I will see you in heaven my sweet son. Thank you for everything.

“ Most people know that I was 4 years older than Shawn. I remember when he told me he was 20 and could not go into a bar with me, I pulled up to a drive-through in Mc Donald's and ordered him a Happy Meal.
