We are going to miss you! I remember the days of going to work with mama and you would play with me. Mama would have been the first to see you off! But she was here with me 😞. To the family much love ❤️! She was a very sweet lady indeed

“ We are going to miss you dearly. You were another aunt to us. We've known you since before starting preschool. My sisters don't remember or know about the days you and mom shared working at John Knox but I do. Heidi was my babysitter a few times. My mom is going to miss those lunch and breakfast dates you shared. Those mornings going to yard sales and going to pat e Larkin center and other events. Getting her out the house. She attended some of our family members graduation, parties and other events. She was very supportive, sweet and kind hearted lady. I still can't believe it. Condolences to Heidi , Jason and family

“ To the family your sister was such a sweet loving person. She will be greatly miss she touched so many lives on the job. When we worked at John Knox Village that was back in the days. She kept a smile on her face that you would never know if she was upset Or not. Sheryl was a passionate person she had a good heart for anyone. Louis and Maryland be strong and God will see you both through this God bless 🙏
