

Steven Adams London

January 21, 1956 - May 10, 2025

Steven Adams London, affectionately known as “Steve/Stevie” was born on January 21, 1956, in Palm Beach County to the late John Henry London, Sr. and the late Laura Adams (London) Jones. At a young age, Stevie and his family relocated to Broward County.

He was educated in Broward County schools and graduated from Stranahan High School in Fort Lauderdale, Florida, Class of 1974.

Stevie was a chef by trade and worked his craft at several restaurants throughout Broward County. He loved to cook and by his own interpretation, was the best cook and no one could “outcook” him. Anyone that knew him could attest to the fact that Stevie loved cooking and eating.

Stevie had a love for fast cars and motorcycles. His last prize possession was a black Harley Davidson Street Glide motorcycle, which he showed off as often as he could. From his hospital bed, Stevie spoke of his desire to ride again.

Stevie loved family and when time permitted, he would go out of his way to visit or talk on the phone for hours, where he did ALL the talking.

On May 10, 2025, Stevie answered the Master’s call and departed this life to eternal rest. Stevie's larger-than-life personality will be missed but memories will forever occupy a space in the hearts of those that love him.

Stevie's loving memories will be cherished by daughters: Felecia Hayes and Crystal Lovett, son: Solomon Terry, sisters: Sherryl Jones-Presley (James), Lynnise Jones-Curry (Raymond), brothers: Corinthian "Cory" Jones, Jerry "Mike" Perry, Sister-in-Law: Arline London, Aunt: Louise Hughes, several nieces and nephews, along with countless family members and friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents, John Henry London, Sr., and Laura Adams Jones, siblings Theresa London, Mark Jones, John Henry London Jr. and Ronald Terrell London.
