

Veronica Pinkney Laura

August 10, 1955 - December 7, 2019

Obituary-

Veronica Pinkney Laura affectionately known as “Sista,” was born August 10, 1955, to the union of James and Luella Pinkney in Pompano Beach, Florida. Veronica was raised in a large family of eight siblings; the third oldest to this union. She received her formal education in the Broward County Public School System; graduating from Coconut Creek High School where she excelled in her studies.

She accepted Christ at an early age and was a member of Full Gospel Church-Living God for over twenty-five years. She was a faithful servant and always eager to assist anyone she could. She loved to love on people. Her hands were rarely still.

Veronica was a devoted wife, daughter, mother, grandmother, sister, cousin and friend. She simply loved and would do anything for her family to ensure fairness, love, happiness and peace. She adored spending time with her grandchildren. They were her universe and she made sure they knew. Her life was a living example of one of her favorite Bible verses, “And be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving one another, just as God also forgave you in Christ.”- Ephesians 4:32

Veronica Pinkney Laura was called to eternal rest on Saturday, December 7, 2019. She was preceded in death by her grandparents, Jonas and Laura Pinkney, Allen Williams and Rosa Lee Battle Reeves; her father, James Pinkney; and her sister, Laverne Brayboy Howard.

She leaves behind to cherish her precious memories: her husband, Paul Laura of Lauderhill, Florida; her mother, Luella Pinkney of Pompano Beach, Florida; one daughter, Ashley R. Campbell (Gregory) of Mandeville, Louisiana; three sons, Shanard M. Saxon (Rhonda), Shannon J. Williams, and John W. Wright of Pompano Beach, Florida; one sister, Patricia Pinkney of Fort Lauderdale, Florida; six brothers, Allen Dale Williams, Vincent Pinkney (Sonia), and Alexander Pinkney (Juarilyn) of Pompano Beach, Florida, James Pinkney, Christopher Pinkney Sr. (Tisha) and Patrick Pinkney (Deebra) of Fort Lauderdale, Florida; eight grandchildren, Shanard Maurice Saxon Jr., Sharrod Marquis Saxon, Jazmine Bass, Nicholas Glenn of Pompano Beach, Florida, Christopher Wright and Chrissla Johnson of Vallejo, California, John Willie Wright, Jr. of Fort Lauderdale, FL and Kiersten Veronica Campbell of Mandeville, Louisiana; one great-grandchild Azalea Naomi Williams of Pompano Beach, Florida; three special nieces, Tyqueese Howard and Taquilla Thomas of Fort Lauderdale, Florida, JaCole Pinkney of Pompano Beach, Florida; one special cousin, Kathy Wallace of Winter Park, Florida; two goddaughters, Carmelita Graham of Tallahassee, Florida, and Shakeera Hamilton of Margate, Florida; and a host of nephews, nieces, cousins and friends.

The Orlando Pinkney Family - December 12, 2019 at 03:04 PM

“ To my dearest family, some things I'd like to say... but first of all, to let you know, that I arrived okay.
I'm writing this from heaven. Here I dwell with God above.
Here, there's no more tears of sadness; here is just eternal love.

*Please do not be unhappy just because I'm out of sight.
Remember that I'm with you every morning, noon and night.
That day I had to leave you when my life on earth was through,
God picked me up and hugged me and He said, "I welcome you."*

It's good to have you back again; you were missed while you were gone.

*As for your dearest family, they'll be here later on.
I need you here badly; you're part of my plan.
There's so much that we have to do, to help our mortal man.*

*God gave me a list of things, that he wished for me to do.
And foremost on the list, was to watch and care for you.
And when you lie in bed at night, the day's chores put to flight.
God and I are closest to you....in the middle of the night.*

*When you think of my life on earth, and all those loving years because you are only human, they are bound to bring you tears.
But do not be afraid to cry; it does relieve the pain.
Remember there would be no flowers, unless there was some rain.*

*I wish that I could tell you all that God has planned.
But if I were to tell you, you wouldn't understand.
But one thing is for certain, though my life on earth is o'er.
I'm closer to you now, than I ever was before.*

*There are many rocky roads ahead of you and many hills to climb;
but together we can do it by taking one day at a time.
It was always my philosophy and I'd like it for you too... that as you give unto the world, the world will give to you.*

*If you can help somebody who's in sorrow and pain, then you can say to God at night...."My day was not in vain."
And now I am contented....that my life has been worthwhile, knowing as I passed along the way, I made somebody smile.*

*So if you meet somebody who is sad and feeling low, just lend a hand to pick him up, as on your way you go.
When you're walking down the street, and you've got me on your mind;
I'm walking in your footsteps only half a step behind.*

And when it's time for you to go.... from that body to be free, remember you're not going.....you're coming here to me.

“ My heart, thoughts and prayers are with you Ashley and your entire family, may God assist you all with comfort and strength during this time.

Remembering my sister in Christ!! A Woman of Faith & Strength, with a Heart of Gold. One who Loved and cared for Everyone!! "A job well done", a servant to others. Her nurturing and love, no doubt positively impacted many lives and will never be forgotten... she was an inspiration to many and she have left a wonderful legacy....(Matt. 25:23) "Well done good and faithful servant... You have been faithful over a little. I will set you over much.. Enter into the JOY of your master" May the work and lives she touched speak for her. Her life has blessed many people and Yes, she will be missed... But the many wonderful memories will continue to live on forever. To the family, FAITH is your comfort as you grieve. May your faith in Christ's promises bring you peace. As the days and weeks pass, and as you all return to life's routine, I am praying that God continue to give each of you strength to endure the challenging days ahead, and may you feel comforted by the love and support of family and friends. IN JESUS NAME!
