Life Reflections

Celebrating the Life of Virgil Wright

1964-2019

Virgil Wright, the 8th child of 9 children, was born and raised in Pompano Beach, Florida to the parentage of Charlie and Georgia M. Wright. As a child growing up he attended Mt. Calvary Baptist Church. Most of his childhood was spent in Pompano Beach, Florida where he obtained his education achievements.

Virgil graduated from Ely High School in 1983. After which he began a career of working various jobs. He was a very hard worker. He started as a janitor for Ely High School and later became an employee at Pinecrest Private School. He later was hired by Broward General Hospital, where he worked for several years then transferred to North Broward Hospital. Mr. Wright being the hard worker that he was, started his own detailing business called V-Man Detailing. On October the 18th day of 2008, he married his wife Christine Morgan Wright. They have been married for 10 years until his demise. Mr. Virgil Wright was preceded by the death of his father, Charlie Wright and 2 of his sisters, Argie and Michelle Wright.

He leaves to cherish his loving memories: his wife: Christine Morgan Wright; two step children: Camisha Morgan and Christopher Morgan; two step grand children: Anisha Robinson and Austin McBean; mother: Georgia M. Brown; brother: George Wright; sisters: Charlie M. Givens (Lorinzo Sr.), Gloria Wright,

Jeanette Wright, Arbredella Tigner (Kenny), Marsha Dixon, Mia Watson (Rick), nieces and nephews and a host of relatives and friends; special friend Isaac.
