The driver of the other vehicle worked for Broward County and had been warned about too many hours. He more than likely fell asleep behind the wheel. He would work double shift through out the week. Broward County is liable. Have his work schedule subpoenaed. Ex employee here. The guy was at fault and so was Broward County.

“ My thoughts and prayers go out to the family at this difficult time. I will forever remember Mari with her beautiful smile and laugh. She was my student at Deerfield Beach Middle School when she was in 8th grade. She always kept me in the loop. She showed me how to work my iPhone, signed me up for Snap Chat, and talked me into getting Lemonade Braids. I wish I had kept all of her pictures and videos with filters that she would take with my phone. May you rest in eternal peace for God truly gained an angel! Love you forever Xiomara!
