

Zabella St. Fleur

June 19, 1956 - October 10, 2021

Zabella “Isonia” St. Fleur was born in Bombardopolis, Haiti to the parentage of Altos St. Fleur and Elizabeth Metezier. She was vibrant and charming even at a young age. She took on the role of caregiver to her siblings at the young age of 14 after the death of her mother. From then Zabella began her journey of caring for others. She never met a stranger so anyone who came in contact with her could feel her love.

Zabella moved to the United States in 1986 and settled in South Florida. She had such an extensive family and ended up calling the city of Delray Beach her home until her passing. To know her was to love her and she loved the residents of her community so much. She would feed the entire block if they needed to eat. She cared for the lonely, the hungry, the homeless, and the forgotten.

Zabella was a person who loved to learn. She expanded her mind as much as she could and always pushed people around her to be great. She continued her education in America and earned her high school diploma. She loved school so much that she continued going to night school to learn as much as she could.

Zabella was loved by everyone and her passing will have a lasting affect in her family chain. She is survived by her children Diempe Cledanord, Wilclise

Cledanord-Arty (Gardy Arty), Wightgimps "Waggs" Cledanord.

Siblings: Paul St. Fleur (Elise St. Fleur), Francoise St. Fleur, Sinevert St. Fleur (Bennette St. Fleur, Ylfanise St. Fleur (Risnet Dortelus), Ixes St. Fleur (Betty St. Fleur), Izemene Gervilus (Petit Gervilus), Ocienne St. Fleur, Gesleine St. Fleur

Preceded in death by: Emmanuel St. Fleur, Francois St. Fleur, Odiniel St. Fleur, Brunel St.Fleur

She also leaves behind a host of extended relatives and friends. Special thanks to the Gervilus family, Metezier family, Dortelus family, Polidor Family and Meteus Family.

“ My condolences to all the family, I saw Zabella at my job and I forgot we are in a world where we stay away due to covid, I try to hug her and she pull back but we was talking about covid and people with covid, she looked healthy and happy I can't believe that would be the last time I would talk with her. I will miss her a lot.
